

Wanhuida Partners speak at Unifab seminar in Paris

Time: Sept 29
2023

On 29th September 2023, the “China Intellectual Property Protection Symposium”, which is organized by French association Unifab, is held in Paris.

Wanhuida Intellectual Property Partners Dr. Huang Hui, Paul Ranjard and Zhu Zhigang give the attendees an informative introduction on the latest legislative updates on China’s Trademark Law, Unfair Competition Law and Civil Procedure Law, the circumstances surrounding the suspension procedure at the China Trademark Office, the Supreme People’s Court’s reopening its door to trademark infringement retrial applications by way of elevation of jurisdiction, as well as the exemplary cases selected by the SPC and courts at various levels in the past year.

The event attracts over 40 corporate counsels and offers a forum of discussion on some hot-button and intricate legal matters.

The firm’s Partner Lei Yongjian also attend the event.

Created in 1872, Unifab is now an association of defense and promotion of intellectual property rights, including 200 companies stemming from all the business sectors. It is a unique observatory of the protection of intellectual property rights, a source of information and a discussion forum.

