

Wanhuida ranked in Chambers Greater China Region Guide

日付: Jan 12
2022

On 12th January 2022, Chambers and Partners announces the launch of its first edition of the Chambers Greater China Region guide. The guide brings together extensive, in-depth market analysis, and rankings of the leading law firms and professionals across all four jurisdictions of the Greater China Region, featuring 5 exclusive chapters: China (International Firms) Chapter, Hong Kong Bar Chapter, China (PRC Firms) Chapter, China Macau & Taiwan Chapters.

Wanhuida Intellectual Property is ranked in Band 2 in the categories of “Intellectual Property: Litigation (PRC Firms)” and “Intellectual Property: Non-litigation (PRC Firms)”. Bai Gang, the firm’s Founding Partner and Management Committee Chair is listed as an “Eminent Practitioner” in the non-litigation field. Dr. Huang Hui and Dr. S. Sam Li are respectively listed as “Leading individuals” in the field of litigation (Band 1) and foreign consultants (Band 2).

Chambers rankings are based on the in-depth research of dedicated and experienced team of researchers. Chambers Greater China Region aims to provide reliable recommendations, to help its readers make an informed decision when purchasing legal services.

