On 10th August 2023, the World IP Review (WIPR) releases the results of its 2023 WIPR Insights inaugural China Trademarks Rankings for international and PRC law firms and lawyers.

The “WIPR Insights Trademarks Rankings 2023: China” spotlight those firms and individuals best placed to advise brands in navigating the nation’s fast evolving trademark landscape.

Wanhuida Intellectual Property is ranked among the top-tier Outstanding Firms in both “Trademark Contentious” and “Trademark Non-contentious” category. The firm’s Partner and Management Committee member Dr. Huang Hui is rated as a Senior Statesperson and an Outstanding Individual (Contentious). Founding Partner and Management Committee Chair Bai Gang is rated as an Outstanding Individual in “Trademark Contentious” category and a Highly Recommended Individual in “Trademark Non-contentious” category. Also ranked is Partner and Management Committee member Ren Haiyan, who is featured as an Outstanding Individual in “Trademark Non-contentious” category.

The ranking is another testament to Wanhuida’s stellar academic credentials and professional expertise in the trademark field.
