

Wanhuida Partner speaks at CIPIS 2022 Shanghai

Time: Aug 18
2022

From 18th to 19th August 2022, the “China Intellectual Property & Innovation Summit” (CIPIS), which is organized by Conways Asia, is held in Shanghai.

Themed "Global Vision, China Focus", the Summit features 10 keynote speeches, 6 panel discussions and 2 parallel forums, covering hot-button topics like “The Protection of Business Know-How & Trade Secrets”, “Section 337 Proceedings at the ITC”, “Guide to Fair Value Calculation of SEP for Multi-Component Products”, “SEP-based Injunctions”, “Transnational IP Litigation against the Backdrop of the Global Trade War”, “IP Protection Strategy for Cross-border Ecommerce”, “Internet C-Terminal Patent Layout and Application”, “IP Operation of Inorganic Nonmetallic Stranglehold Material”, among others.

In the morning of 19th August, the parallel forum on “Foreign Corporations in China” is held. Jason Yao, Partner and Member of the Management Committee of Wanhuida Intellectual Property delivers a keynote speech on “Damages Compensation in Intellectual Property Infringement Litigations”. Jason first prepares the floor with the latest trends on IP infringement litigations, then analyses the legal attributes of the subject matter, followed by practical tips on how to secure large damages through IP infringement proceeding.

Jason Yao

Wanhuida sets up a booth at the summit. The firm's Partners Xiaoling Duan and Shuhua (Mark) Zhang, Marketing Specialist Liu Wenting as well as Paralegal Yu Xinmei also attend the summit.

Wanhuida booth

Visitor to the booth

Visitor to the booth

Wanhuida delegates (Yu Xinmei, Liu Wenting, Jason Yao, Xiaoling Duan & Shuhua Zhang)